

name: _____

date: _____

The Chinese Emperor's New Clothes

Summary: The boy emperor Ming Da has dishonest ministers that steal from the royal treasury. Ming Da's tailors agree to help him trick the ministers. They show the ministers a rice sack and pretend it is a magical new cloth that looks beautiful to honest people and ugly to dishonest people. The ministers pretend that the cloth is beautiful so they appear honest. The tailors make outfits for all the ministers for the New Year's Day parade. The ministers want more jewels and silk for their outfits and pay the tailors with gold and gems. Ming Da uses these riches to feed the poor. On the day of the parade, the ministers step out in their rice sack outfits and everyone laughs at them. They are replaced by honest ministers. 少年皇帝明达有不诚实的大臣从皇家库房中偷窃。明达的裁缝同意帮助他欺骗大臣。他们向大臣们展示一个米袋，并假装它是一块神奇的新布，在诚实的人看来很漂亮，在不诚实的人看来是丑陋的。大臣们假装布料很漂亮，所以显得很诚实。裁缝为所有部长制作新年游行的服装。大臣们想要更多的珠宝和丝绸来装饰他们的服装，并用黄金和宝石支付给裁缝。明达用这些财富养活穷人。阅兵当天，大臣们身着米袋装走出来，大家都笑他们。他们最后被诚实的部长取代。

1. What do the tailors use to cut the fabric on the cutting table? Colour the correct answer!

Knife

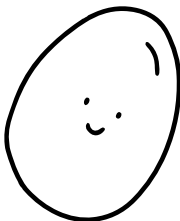

Axe

Scissors

2. What does Ming Da feed to the poor? Colour the correct answer!

Egg

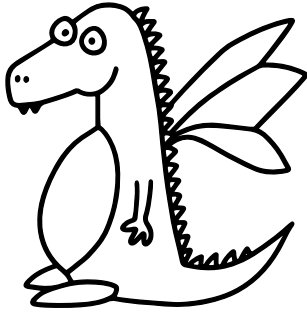

Rice

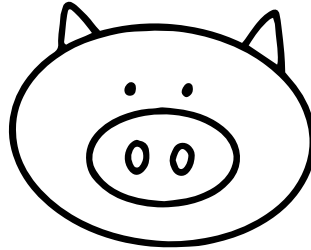

Soup

3. What kind of puppet is used in the parade? Colour the correct answer!

Dragon

Pig

Horse

---

---

Lesson: This story is a twist on the fairy tale “The Emperor’s New Clothes”. It teaches us that we should be honest about our thoughts and feelings so we don’t end up like the ministers! 这个故事是童话“皇帝的新装”的转折。它告诉我们，我们应该诚实地对待我们的想法和感受，这样我们就不会像牧师一样结束！

Draw something from the story!

