

Vocabulary Cue Cards

The Giraffe and the Pelly and Me - Part 2

1. Cut along the dotted lines and fold along the solid line to make a double-sided cue card.
2. Read the full sentence and make an educated guess on the bold word's meaning.
3. Check the definition at the back to see if you were correct! Then, form your own sentence.

Front

'Your Grace,' the Giraffe said, giving the Duke a small superior smile, 'There are no windows in the world I cannot reach with this magical neck of mine.'

The Giraffe and the Pelly and Me, Page 34

Back

Superior (adj): Making oneself seem better or more important than others.

Front

'I'll run him though!' he shouted, flourishing the sword like a fencer.

The Giraffe and the Pelly and Me, Page 41

Back

Flourish (v): To wave something to attract attention.

Front

Pointing his sword at the Pelican, he bellowed, 'Keep that beak closed, sir! Don't you dare let him out! He'll murder us all!'

The Giraffe and the Pelly and Me, Page 42

Back

Bellow (v): To make a deep loud roar, usually in pain or anger.

Front

'My diamond rings! They've had the lot! My rooms have been ransacked!'

The Giraffe and the Pelly and Me, Page 43

Back

Ransack (v): Go through a place stealing things and causing damage.
