Learning Ray Wu Speech

Lesson 2

Below is a speech from a TedxYouth conference! Fourth grader Ray Wu talks about how curiosity is what keeps us growing, inventing, and discovering for the future. Fill in the blanks to complete the speech. There is a word bank below to help you!

Curiosity is the _____ for discovery and learning. It's clear that because of curiosity, _____ is way more fun and useful than we used to think. Sometimes we _____ to enjoy new discoveries. That's when learning becomes _____ and boring. So, to jump start your curious mind, I challenge you to learn one _____ thing this week, not because you have to, but because you want to. The _____ belongs to those who are _____. Those who are not afraid to explore it, touch it, feel it, taste it, _____ it, _____ it and turn it _____ out.
